2024 dSAT Camp Daily Schedule

The first digital SAT test is scheduled for March 9th, 2024. Since it's a new platform, we are recommending that you go for private lessons instead of group camps. Because of the new changes, the 1-on-1 private lessons tailored to what you need will be more efficient and effective for students at different levels.

If you or a family member have a confirmed case of Covid, please let us know ahead of time. Since we want to limit our students' exposure to the virus, we will offer you an online proctored mock exam and online classes. You may stop by the office and pick up your test the day before. If you fail to notify us on a timely basis, we reserve the right to not accept you into the classroom. As the SAT camp is a group class program, there is no monetary or credit refund if you are unable to attend in-person or online. Thank you very much for your cooperation and understanding. Your health is still our top priority.
